

While the idea of granting credit for the Morse Code element toward the other parts of the exam has some superficial merit, both code proficiency and technical knowledge are necessary to be a responsible Amateur radio operator. The proposal to consolidate the license classes tends to remove the incentive to upgrade, which is a step in the wrong direction. I therefore oppose the adoption of this proceeding.